

House Rules September 2025

The following house rules govern the behavior of our members. The person in charge at the time (Post Commander, an officer, a bartender, or a security person) will enforce these rules. Flagrant violators will immediately be suspended from all activities for a period not to exceed two weeks pending an investigation of the violation.

Membership Card: A current membership card must be produced upon request. If the patron cannot produce a card, he or she must be signed in by a cardholding member or leave.

Point of Entry: For security reasons, entry to the building will be with a key card at the front door only. All other doors must be closed unless a special event is taking place. Special events require door monitoring, and all entrants must sign in at the entryway.

Key Card Usage: Key cards are issued for security and convenience to members who frequent the club regularly. Key cards are not a substitute for member identification. Members are still required to have an active membership card on their person to enter the club.

Sign-in: All patrons must sign in when entering the facility. There are no exceptions and patrons refusing to sign in will be asked to leave.

Guests: An active member must sign in guests and is responsible for their conduct. It is the member's responsibility to ensure the guests leave when they do.

Off Limits Areas: The kitchen, meeting hall, office areas, and the area behind the bar are off limits without permission from an officer or the bartender.

Smoking Areas: Designated smoking areas are the back patio and the north side of building.

Aggressive Actions: Abusive or aggressive actions or language will not be tolerated which includes indiscriminate shouting or yelling.

Care of Property: Any member removing (without proper permission), damaging, or destroying post property must pay for the loss or damage. The Commander will determine if further Legion action is warranted in cases of theft.

Sales to intoxicated Persons: It is a violation of the Liquor Control Act for a person to sell, deliver or serve alcoholic beverages to or to procure or aid in the procurement of alcoholic beverages for an intoxicated person. The bartender on duty is required to suspend service to any person that appears to be intoxicated. Further they can suspend service and eject from the club any person attempting to procure alcohol for an intoxicated person. The bartender should secure transportation for an intoxicated person with a non-intoxicated person or by calling a commercial taxi.

Notice to Leave: Once a patron is refused service or requires severe corrective action, he or she must immediately leave the premises or risk having their post privileges revoked.

No weapons or drugs are allowed in the Post: Anyone caught bringing a weapon into the Post will be asked to leave and will not be allowed to return for the remainder of that day. Repeat offenders face disciplinary actions with possible loss of Post privileges and revocation of membership.
